2 inserting after all of said section and line the following:

3
4 "44.080. 1. Each political subdivision of this state shall establish a local organization for 5 disaster planning in accordance with the state emergency operations plan and program. The 6 executive officer of the political subdivision shall appoint a coordinator who shall have direct 7 responsibility for the organization, administration and operation of the local emergency management
8 operations, subject to the direction and control of the executive officer or governing body. Each 9 local organization for emergency management shall be responsible for the performance of 10 emergency management functions within the territorial limits of its political subdivision, and may 11 conduct these functions outside of the territorial limits as may be required pursuant to the provisions 12 of this law.

13 2. In carrying out the provisions of this law, each political subdivision may:

14 (1) Appropriate and expend funds, make contracts, obtain and distribute equipment, 15 materials, and supplies for emergency management purposes; provide for the health and safety of 16 persons; the safety of property; and direct and coordinate the development of disaster plans and 17 programs in accordance with the policies and plans of the federal and state governments; [and]

18 (2) Appoint, provide, or remove rescue teams, auxiliary fire and police personnel and other 19 emergency operations teams, units or personnel who may serve without compensation[.]; and

20 (3) Adopt orders or resolutions with penalties as these specifically relate to the actual or 21 impending occurrence of a natural disaster of major proportions within the county when the safety
22 and welfare of the inhabitants of such county are jeopardized. Such orders or resolutions may include 23 the issuance of burn ban orders carrying penalties as specified in subsection 2 of section 44.130 if 24 the U.S. Drought Monitor has designated the county as an area of severe, extreme, or exceptional
25 drought. The political subdivision may consult the state fire marshal regarding the necessity for a 26 burn ban order. The violations of such order or resolution shall be an infraction, except that state 27 agencies responsible for fire management or suppression activities and persons conducting 28 agricultural burning using best management practices shall not be subject to the provisions of this 29 subsection. The ability of an individual, organization, or corporation to sell fireworks shall not be 30 affected by the issuance of a burn ban order.

31 49.266. 1. The county commission in all counties of the first, second or fourth classification 32 may by order or ordinance promulgate reasonable regulations concerning the use of county property, 33 the hours, conditions, methods and manner of such use and the regulation of pedestrian and vehicular

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 traffic and parking thereon.

2 2. The county commission in all counties may, by order, promulgate reasonable regulations 3 concerning its emergency management functions and operations and conditions controls, as they 4 specifically relate to the actual occurrence of a natural disaster within the county when the safety or 5 welfare of the inhabitants of such county are threatened by actual or impending circumstances. The 6 regulations may include the issuance of burn ban orders carrying penalties as specified in subsection
7 2 of section 44.130 and monetary fines as established by the county commission, if the U.S. Drought 8 Monitor has designated the county as an area of severe, extreme, or exceptional drought. The 9 political subdivision may consult the state fire marshal regarding the necessity for a burn ban order.
10 State agencies responsible for fire management or suppression activities and persons conducting 11 agricultural burning using best management practices shall not be subject to the provisions of this 12 subsection. The ability of an individual, organization, or corporation to sell fireworks shall not be 13 affected by the issuance of a burn ban order.

14 3. Violation of any regulation so adopted is an infraction or may be as provided in subsection 15 2 of section 44.130 as specified in the adopted regulation.

16 [3.] 4. The regulations so adopted shall be codified, printed and made available for public 17 use and adequate signs concerning smoking, traffic and parking regulations shall be posted. "; and
